Lady Chairman's welcome letter 2023

I would like to wish all Norfolk Centre Members a Happy New Caravanning Year 2023! As always, we must thank our rally marshals and committee members for all the hard work which goes on, unseen and unpaid, behind the scenes. Without the efforts of all these good people, we would have no rallies, or events, to enjoy. Please give them your support again this year and examine your conscience to see if you too could find some time to join the "back room" teams! Do have a chat with me or one of the committee members and/or a rally marshal, to see what might fit your available time and your skill set (you are all capable of more than you think!) Go on ... you'll enjoy it I'm sure.

I'm sure you have all read this quote somewhere before! "Everybody was sure Somebody would do it. Anybody could have done it, but Nobody did it. Somebody got angry about that, because it was Everybody's job. Everybody thought that Anybody could do it but Nobody realized that Everybody wouldn't do it." It made me think that, although it's been around for years, it is still relevant today.

I will stop banging the drum asking for help from you, the members, and hope that enough of you will be able to find it in your hearts to take over from those who have been doing these jobs for a considerable amount of time. There are Centres all over the country, struggling just as we do, to get folk to run rallies and volunteer to join the committee. Each year, another one or two disappear. Do you want Norfolk to join the "Centres in hibernation"?

Please join us at the Natter n Chatter (February) and the Annual General Meeting (October) both held at East Tuddenham. (See the rally list, Norfolk Centre website or Friends of Norfolk Centre FB page for details).

Happy Rallying Everyone!

Introduction to Rallying / Eventing

If you haven't attended a Rally / Event before this introduction will help you understand what a Rally is and also is not!

Our rallies are simply a gathering of Caravan Club members organised through a mass booking. We negotiate attractive rates for the rallies and usually you can stay on site for significantly less than the standard cost as well as arrive earlier and leave later than you would on an independent booking.

You don't have to know anyone else in order to join a rally and you are free to participate as much or as little as you want. Some rallies have organised events – others are free and easy – either way you'll be given information about the area and the site and can then just enjoy your reduce rate caravanning.

Rallies are organised by the regional centres of which Norfolk is one. Each rally has a set of marshals and assistant marshals. Put simply these are the volunteers who manage the rally from collating the numbers of members attending and placing signage on the approach roads, to siting the vans when they arrive through to providing tea and biscuits on the last day. The rally Marshals are ordinary Centre members who have volunteered their time.

It is simple to book these rallies. Just complete a rally booking slip and email it to the rally marshal giving them as much notice as possible, and not later than the stipulated slip return date. You will find their name, email and telephone number at the bottom of each of the rally details. If there is no email address please call the marshal for contact details.

When you go to your booked rally, follow the directions given in the rally book, and when you are near the site you will see our direction signs which are YELLOW with CAMCNC RALLY in black lettering. As you enter the site you will see the rally marshals caravan, which is usually identified by a large Norfolk Centre flag and a rally marshals sign beside it. Please stop by their caravan, introduce yourselves and advise them if it is your first rally. They will give you an envelope containing information of the programme for the rally, any competitions, tickets for socials or events that may have been arranged, your first rally plaque showing that you attended the rally, and printed on the front, your cost of the rally.

You will then be shown to your pitch and helped to park up (if required). You will be shown where to find the drinking water tap and the toilet (Elsan) disposal point.

There is usually a committee member attending the rally or at least arriving towards the end of the rally to Chair what is known as "flagpole". Put simply this is where we have a get-together, introduce our first ralliers and our visitors, thank our marshals, hold a raffle, give out details of future events and results of any competitions. Usually tea, coffee and biscuits are on offer.

So why not give it a try – what's not to like about cut price caravanning?

Booking & Payment for Rallies

Booking

When booking your rallies, please fully complete the rally slip (this information is essential to allow the correct planning of the rally site) and either post or email it to the rally marshal. You will be contacted for a £10 deposit shortly after the marshal receives your slip.

Please note all deposits are non-refundable and the Centre reserves the right to charge a £10 non-attendance fee.

If there is a holiday rally that you would like to attend for a weekend or part week, simply telephone the rally marshal and ask them if they have space for you for the period you require. If possible, they will accommodate your needs.

Please remember rally marshals are volunteers with other commitments so please help them to help you by supplying as much information as possible and completing documentation fully

Please check for any cancellations at www.norfolkcentre.co.uk or the Facebook page

Payment

The centre has invested in an electronic payment system called SumUp as cash payments are discouraged. When you provide a mobile number and email address on the booking slip, marshals can send you a payment request which you can make by credit or debit card just by following the link. This is the preferred method of payment. Unfortunately the link is non-specific so if you are unsure please contact the marshal – don't ignore the link as this means you haven't paid!

Additionally payment can be made by credit/ debit card on arrival at the rally where not previously requested.
